

A Yes, I am.

Q Can you tell us, please, the heirs at law of both of these ladies, who were sisters?

A These two ladies were maiden ladies. They were sisters. And Miss Theresa Spurrier died without any will that I ever heard of, on the 3rd or 5th of March, 1937; and I am informed she had a one-half undivided interest in this property. Miss Sadie E. Spurrier had the other undivided one-half interest in this same property.

At the time of the death of Theresa A. M. Spurrier she was survived by Miss Sadie E. Spurrier, a sister, and a brother, Jacob H. L. Spurrier, whose wife's name is Annie Spurrier; then myself, Coral Spurrier Kling, and my husband's name is Roscoe M. Kling. I am a niece. Then my uncle, John E. C. Spurrier died, and he left surviving him a widow, Juliet Maynard Spurrier, and a son, Murtlin M. Spurrier, whose wife's name is Sadie B. Spurrier, and another son, Sterling E. Spurrier, whose wife's name is Nellie M. Spurrier. That is the branch of that family.

Also another brother, Alvin Taylor A. Spurrier, whose wife's name is Catherine A. Spurrier.

My father's name was William Martin Luther Spurrier^{who is dead,} and he was a full brother to Theresa and Sadie, both, and including myself left the following children: Charles O. Spurrier, a son, whose wife's name I do not know, and the last we heard of him he was somewhere in Logansport, Indiana. I don't even know whether he is married or not, so I wouldn't know his wife's name. Myself, a daughter, Coral Spurrier Kling. My husband's name is Roscoe M. Kling and we live in Frederick County, Maryland. Another son, Samuel E. Spurrier, whose wife's name is Poella Spurrier, and reside in Denver, Colorado. Another son, Royal E. Spurrier, whose wife's name is Ruth D. Spurrier, and reside in Fort Wayne, Indiana. Another son, Walter E. Spurrier, whose
